Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Address Delivered Before the Seventh Annual Meeting of the Virginia State Agricultural Society: November 4th, 1858 Mr. President, and Gentlemen of the Agricultural Society: It seems to me eminently proper, to connect with these imposing exhibitions of the trophies of your agricultural skill, a discussion of the whole bearings and relations, jural, moral, social, and economical, of that peculiar industrial system to which we are so largely indebted for the results that have awakened our pride and gratification. No class in the community has so many and such large interests gathered up in the safety and permanence of that system as the Farmers of the State. The main-wheel and spring of your material prosperity, interwoven with the entire texture of your social life, underlying the very foundations of the public strength and renown, to lay upon it any rash hand would put in peril whatever you value; the security of your property, the peace of your society, the well-being - if not the existence of that dependent race which Providence has committed to your...
