Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from After-Dinner Proceedings of the Bar Association of San Francisco at the Hotel St. Francis: San Francisco, California, Thursday Evening, March 24, 1910 The President: Ordinarily the President of this Association is supposed to make an address at the beginning of the literary exercises of the evening. There will be a pleasurable disappointment in that respect for you this evening - there will be no set address by the President. We have too much of interest before us. There are one or two things, however, in connection with a subject in which we are all interested, that I think it worth while to say to you at this time. In an address that I indiscreetly delivered before the Commonwealth Club of the city of San Jose the other evening I referred to a distinguished professor of a distinguished university in their midst as having given an epigrammatic solution of all the troubles to which the lack of administration of the law are due, and that was to hang a few lawyers. The statement was made by...
