Not illustrated. 1922 Excerpt: . . . and has won for him the popular title of the marrying justice of Worcester county. During his long service he issued more than 1. 000 marriage licenses, and united many as a lasting influence in the homes thus founded, for in all the list there is no record of any couple whom Mr. Davis married having been later separated by a decree of divorce. Mr. Davis was actively engaged at his office until about two weeks before his death, although his health had been failing for the past two years. He carried the office duties alone until 1913, when the rapid growth of the city increased his labors to a point where an assistant was imperative. George F. Albee was appointed by the city as assistant city clerk and is now filling the office left vacant by the death of Mr. Davis. In various interests, civic and fraternal, Mr. Davis was broadly active. He was for many years president of the Worcester County, City and Town Clerks Association, and was a member of the Massachusetts City Clerks Association, of which he was treasurer and member of the executive committee. He was a prominent member of Aurora Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons; Thomas Chapter, Royal Arch Masons; and of Jerusalem Commandery, No. 19, Knights Templar. He was a member of Mt. Roulstone Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows; and of King David Encampment of the same order. He was also a member and worthy patron of Lady...
