Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Parent-Teacher Associations of Washington, Vol. 31 The growth of the Parent-Teacher movement in the State of Washington has been rapid. Circles have been formed in most of the schools of the larger cities, and even in the schools of many rural communities. Councils have brought the Circles together for exchange of thought and inspiration, while County Divisions have served the purpose of federating the isolated country Circles and spreading the gospel of helpfulness, of cooperation, of sincere devotion to the welfare of the citizens of tomorrow. The schools of this state are making great progress toward the goal of efficiency in moulding aright the men and women of tomorrow. The school and the teacher mould and shape the character of every pupil, ever striving to produce the perfect citizen, but the greatest good for humanity will never be accomplished until the co-ordination of the home and school activities and the complete cooperation of the parent and teacher has been brought about. The school marm of yesterday s romance and idle tales has gone. In her...
