Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen: Although the official announcement of my appointment to the present service designated it as an eulogy, I see that the published official notice of this meeting announces me for An Address on the life and services of Hon. Jacob Collamer. I hence infer that a memorial, rather than an eulogic service will the better answer the proprieties, and meet the expectations of this occasion. And this may well be so; for Eulogy found free expression from eloquent and adequate tongues in the halls that had been honored by the presence and services of the illustrious dead, while the tear of present grief was dimming the eyes and moistening the cheeks of his surviving fellow senators and statesmen. It was emulously echoed by the many tongued press of the nation. It was worthily and touchingly repeated in these legislative halls by those commissioned to give utterance to the deep and...
