Community Services Block Grants (CSBG) provide federal funds to states, territories, and tribes for distribution to local agencies to support a wide range of community-based activities to reduce poverty. Smaller related programs Community Economic Development (CED), Rural Community Facilities (RCF), and Individual Development Accounts (IDAs) also support antipoverty efforts. CSBG and some of these related activities trace their roots to the War on Poverty, launched in the 1960s. Today, they are administered at the federal level by the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). CSBG and related activities are funded in FY2012 under the Consolidated Appropriations Act (P. L. 112-74), at a combined level of 732 million. This includes 677 million for CSBG, 30 million for CED (of which up to 10 million may be used for the Administrations Healthy Foods Financing Initiative), 5 million for RCF, and 20 million for IDAs. President Obama submitted his FY2013 budget to Congress in February, requesting total funding of 400 million for CSBG and related activities. This includes a sharp drop in funding for the block grant from its FY2012 level of 677 million to...
