What comforting words these were! Gideon felt almost afraid to undertake the work which God wished him to do. He was not rich. His family was not great. But God had promised, Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites. So we learn first that Gideon was remarkable for his faith. (Write it on the board.) He believed God would help him. Next we notice the obedience of Gideon. He did what God commanded, even when it seemed dangerous for one weak man to undertake the work of destroying the altar of the false god Baal and to set up in its place an altar to the only true God. Yet he had the courage (third trait) to do this. He believed God's word and obeyed it, so he was brave to do great and hard things, and...
